On the third time I finally purchased the good repair manual from another tradebit vendor and it is exactly what I needed for just $17. They are a new style of company offering a service much like Paypal and they stand behind their process and are very rapid in their responses and refunds through paypal. Given their service I cannot ask for more.

Been away for awhile. I was wondering if anyone on here has downloaded any repair/tech manuals from Tradebit.com? I'm looking to download the John Deere 310a/b tech service manual. It only cost $35.00. This seems somewhat fishy to me. Too good to be true? They have some type of guarantee on the web page.
