The engine was an AVF with 6 speed manual box with 130 bhp. Very refined, lots of pull, with great economy. I've seen a second hand Passat with an AWX engine with a 5 speed box.

well have checked over the awx motor and there is a difference in the flywheel sizes ,which i have now cured by replacing the 228mm flywheel for a new 240mm flywheel and complete clutch kit and have also noticed that the fuel filter housing doesn't have any water cooling pipework so plan to fit the original from the avf motor...my poor old wallet is taking a real pounding and is at breaking ...

Early PD130 engines both AWX and AVF had different injectors to the later cars Hopefully yours will both have the same injectors so there won't be any issues. The only difference between the AVF and AWX is a small increase in torque 285Nm on AWX and 310 Nm on the AVF which is done with slightly different mapping in the ECU. Karl.

I was wondering which engine code would be the better choice, with possibly some tuning in the future on mind. I've been searching for 1.9 8v PD-TDI, to retain compatibility with the wiring harness, and hopefully the imo. Would AWX or AVF be good choices? Thanks alot! _____

The only difference between AVF and AWX is the 6 speed box on the AVF also meaning it has a larger clutch 240mm verses 228mm on the 5 speed AWX. And the map in the ECU is different on the AVF gives the engine 310Nm of torque the AWX is 285Nm. In the real world that makes little difference to performance though.

Volkswagen Passat (2001 - 2005) - 02 1.9TDi 130bhp AWX engine misfiring. Hi all, I posted a while back with boost / turbo issues. After lots of help it came down to a faulty boost pressure regulator (n75) and some vacuum pipes with holes in them. However someone suggested I got a compression test done, and after 2 compression tests the garage finally told me that Cyl 2 was misfiring.

VW Audi 1.9 TDI PD - Best Engine Ever ?. In 40 years of motoring and access to the Millbrook trade days to trial all models over the last 20 years I have come to the conclusion that the 1.9 TDI PD engine takes some beating. Low end torque , turbo kicks in at 2000 revs and unbelievable fuel economy I have yet to find a better combination of useable power and economy.
