Introductory chemistry's (Chem 2C's) lab format earned finalist honors during the recent Macromedia MAX award. The awards were presented at the Macromedia conference in Salt Lake City in November to recognize "excellent, innovative and result-proven projects built with Macromedia technology." The online lab also was handpicked to be exhibited at the conference.

IN BRIEF: Lab format earns kudos | UC Davis

Other UC Davis departments, and even other institutions, have expressed interest in creating similar online programs and using Chem 2C as a model. For example, Fink notes the large interest among microbiology instructors for an online pre-lab exercise, and adds that the chemistry department is working to get other instructors involved.

My roommate got an A in both BIS 2B and 2C. Honestly, don't worry too much. As for CHE 8AB, I've heard that it's much easier than the other two O-Chem series (118 and I think the 129). I'm currently finishing up the CHE 118 series because it is required by a majority of vet schools besides UC Davis and a few other schools, and it's difficult.
