I'll move on to the next chapter, but you could easily rewrite this book as a Blue Pill Sales Manual or a Red Pill treatise on deconstruction of the world around you. It's very different than the sort of thing that Cialdini talks about (imo) Chapter 3 - Center of Attention To become a pimp you have to become the center of attention.

Pimp is a memoir by Iceberg Slim, a black man who became a pimp in the United States during the 1930's. He shares his background of what led up to his pimp life along with stories that took place during his career. While the book contains many useful tips on how to handle women, I wouldn't call it a pimp manual.
